Three Bedroom Beach Pool Residence

An aerial photograph of a tropical beach residence. The property is situated on a white sand beach that curves along the edge of clear, turquoise water. A stone breakwater extends from the beach into the water. The residence features a large, rectangular swimming pool with a green interior, surrounded by a wooden deck and lounge furniture. The building has a traditional thatched roof and is nestled among lush greenery, including palm trees and dense foliage. The overall scene is serene and idyllic.
