Safety regulations

Minimum proof of a valid certification must be submitted at the dive centre to be accepted as a diver

Decompression diving is not allowed

A surface interval of 24 hours is required before flying (this also includes a seaplane)

Valid diving insurance is mandatory for all certified divers

Use complete and well-maintained equipment for diving, it's the diver's responsibility to check the equipment before each dive

Use of dive computers is mandatory for all divers, and sharing is not allowed

Minimum tank pressure at the end of each dive – 50 bar

Maldivian law states that the maximum depth limit is 30 meters

Entry-level divers' maximum depth limit is 20 meters

Each dive requires a safety stop at 5 meters for 3 minutes

Maximum dive time: 60 minutes

Stay well hydrated

Lost diver procedure: Look for 1 minute and surface

Recall signal for boat diving: Banging continuously on the dive ladder by the boat crew, all divers surface within 5 minutes, including a safety stop

Always dive with a buddy, solo diving is not allowed

Slow ascend from each dive (18 meters per minute or slower)

Avoid Yo-Yo diving

Inflate the surface balloon at the end of each dive

Do not touch or collect any marine life

Leave nothing but only bubbles behind

Daily dive sites will be chosen based on weather conditions and the experience of the divers

PLEASE KINDLY NOTE:

All dive and water sports activities and excursions are subject to a 10% service charge, and 16% Goods and Services Tax(GST). Retail items are subject to 16% GST only

All rates are in USD, and activities are quoted per person per hour unless otherwise stated

All dive courses are for a minimum of two persons; however, private lessons are available on request for an additional fee. For scheduled excursions, such as night fishing, we typically require a minimum of four persons

Private charters on all of our vessels can be arranged with a guide and are subject to availability.

Please remember, all participants in all activities or excursions do so at their own risk, and all water sports activities are subject to weather conditions

We reserve the right to suspend any given activity or excursion at any time

Lost or damaged equipment will be charged at replacement cost rates. All participants in all water-based activities are required to complete our liability release and must wear a life vest (except for Scuba Diving)

Proof of sailing license and/or competency assessment (at a small fee) is required for use of windsurfing, kiting and sailing equipment unless under instruction

We understand that your plans may change. We request that you let us know at least by 18:00 the day before the scheduled activity

We reserve the right to charge a 50% cancellation fee for cancellations made after 18:00 for the next day's excursions and 100% for last-minute cancellations or no-shows

Prices are subject to change without prior notice. Trips are subject to minimum numbers and are weather dependent.
