Local Attractions

Bikini Beach

Located on the eastern side of the island, Bikini Beach is a designated area for tourists to sunbathe and swim without wearing traditional Islamic clothing. The beach is secluded and has calm waters, making it an excellent spot for snorkeling and swimming.

The island has a private beach for tourists where you can swim in a bikini. The water is not very deep, so the island is suitable for families with children.

Picnic island

Picnic Island is a small sandbank located near Mathiveri Island in the Maldives. It's a popular day trip destination for visitors looking for a secluded and picturesque spot to enjoy a picnic, swim, or simply relax.

The island is surrounded by turquoise waters, and the sandbank is made up of soft, powdery white sand. The crystal-clear waters around Picnic Island are ideal for snorkeling and swimming, and visitors can explore the diverse marine life that calls the area home.

The island is a short boat ride away from Mathiveri, and many local tour operators offer day trips to the sandbank. Visitors can spend the day lounging on the sand, swimming in crystal-clear waters, or taking a snorkeling excursion to explore the underwater world.

Picnic Island is also a popular spot for romantic getaways and private events such as weddings and honeymoons. Many tour operators offer private boat charters to the island, allowing couples and small groups to enjoy the sandbank in privacy.

House reef

The house reef is easily accessible from the shore, making it an excellent option for both experienced and novice snorkelers. You can simply wade into the water from the beach, and within minutes, you will be surrounded by a plethora of marine life. The visibility is generally excellent, allowing you to appreciate the underwater scenery.

The house reef is part of a marine protected area that encompasses several neighboring islands. This designation means that the waters around Mathiveri are well-preserved and provide a healthy ecosystem for marine life to thrive.
