PHOTO FANATICS
BY LUX*

An aerial photograph of a tropical beach scene. A woman with long blonde hair, wearing a white one-piece swimsuit, is lying on her back on a fallen palm tree trunk. The trunk lies horizontally across the frame, with the woman positioned towards the right end. To the left of the trunk, a large, healthy palm tree stands with its fronds spread out. The beach is a light-colored sand, and the water is a clear, shallow turquoise. The shadows of the trees and the woman are cast onto the sand. The text is overlaid on the right side of the image.
