Soul-Soothing Architecture

The architecture is a marvel of simplicity and the landscape a tropical paradise. Each area, has its own charm, with handpicked natural stones and wood. The beauty goes deeper than what only the eye can behold. The predominant architectural materials were imported to lend Baale the authenticity of a Bali inspired haven

A wooden dining table with blue chairs is visible in the background. A swimming pool is partially visible on the right side. The scene is set in a tropical or resort environment with lush greenery and a wooden building in the background.

Private pool villas bring you a serene and tranquil escape awakening an essence of 'Susegado' in you

Each Villa is designed to be strictly compliant to Vaastu Shastra while also balancing the Chi factor, ensuring the wellness of our guests at all times

With floor-to-ceiling natural teak collapsible glazing and handpicked custom interiors, bask indoors as you enjoy immersive views of the outdoors

Soak in the exquisite architecture and artifacts, spread your gaze over seamless interiors and exterior landscape features and enjoy thoughtful detailing in every aspect of your stay

Be it a merry family soiree, a curated barbecue or a romantic intimate candle-lit dinner - in the dining room, the villa gardens, or pool deck; our private chef service provides guests an array of dining options in the comfort of their villa

With an unending list of quaint spaces, each villa has its own unique charm, but what they all do have is seamless settings. Get mesmerized as Mother Nature splashes the sky with sultry oranges and startling yellows for the grandest extravaganza of the Goan Sun

The villas offer four bedroom or three bedroom options, whilst transporting you to an ambience that's both international and yet true to its tropical habitat

Enjoy signature private swimming pools in each villa that are impressively lengthy with an in built whirlpool, water features and a pool deck

Mind Body Soul

Enjoy luxury living with breathtaking views of paddy fields, and a host of wellness and recreational facilities. A welcome escape, a special haven of privacy, calm and indulgence where one can lounge lavishly with their loved ones

The Baale Club spaces are designed to allow guests to mingle in seamless luxury and tranquility

Baale offers a surreal escape to transcended luxury
