To celebrate a wedding in Mauritius, the following documents are required by the Civil Status Office:

- 1 copy of the first six pages of the passports
- 1 copy of the birth certificates (Issued not more than 3 months before wedding date)
- 1 copy of the divorce certificate or certificate of death of spouse when applicable
- Divorced women or widowed getting married within ten (10) months (300 days) of the divorce pronouncement/death of spouse will require a certificate of non-pregnancy issued by a medical practitioner/doctor in Mauritius (at clients' expenses). It is understood that if the bride is pregnant, the civil marriage cannot be celebrated in Mauritius.
- Change of name document when applicable
- Adoption documents if has been adopted.
- An application form (supplied by the T.O) duly filled in and signed by the future groom and bride

Please note that the above information is subject to change at any time due to changes in local law. Future spouses are advised to seek independent advice in respect of their upcoming marriage directly from the registry office, with the hotel wedding coordinator or through their wedding planner if they have appointed one.

Procedures in Mauritius

- All documents should be sent to the hotel at least 8 weeks prior to wedding date. Birth certificates issued not more than 3 months of the date of the application for publication of the marriage. For French citizens, original documents as well as the forms filled and signed must be sent directly to the French Embassy in Mauritius at least 6 months before the ceremony.
- However, where any party cannot produce any civil status document, he may instead produce an affidavit sworn in his country of residence or in such form as the Registrar of Civil Status may approve
- All the documents (including birth certificates) which are in not in English or French should be duly translated in English or French by a certified translator and should bear an official seal.
- The bride and the groom need to be independently fluent in either English or French otherwise they will have to book a translator to assist them for the formalities
- Clients are requested to check accuracy of information given by registrar office on their personal details on the date of the formalities
- It is recommended to the bride and the groom to be on the island 72 hours before the civil wedding as the banns must be published and formalities have to be done by both parties at the Civil Status Offices at least one or two working days before the civil wedding.
- Supreme Court and Civil Status Office do not operate on weekends and public holidays. It is advised that the future spouses confirm the best appropriate date of arrival in Mauritius.
- Costs of taxi and legal services are subject to changes
- Beachcomber cannot be held responsible for any delay in processing the formal documents following the civil ceremony
- Additional documents may be required depending on the nationality of the bride and groom.
