Location

“Enclosed within the sands of Natai and overlooking the crystal-blue Andaman Sea, Iniala Beach House is located 25 minutes north of Phuket International Airport. Within just 10 miles, you can explore the Similan Islands: a group of nine stunning archipelagos in the Andaman Sea known for their crystal-clear waters, white sandy beaches, and marine life. They are renowned for their diving and snorkeling opportunities, making them a popular destination for both local and international tourists. The islands are part of the Mu Ko Similan National Park, a protected marine area, and are accessible by boat from Phuket.”
