THE HISTORY OF LE MERIDIEN ABU DHABI

One of Abu Dhabi's original urban resorts, Le Meridien Abu Dhabi was inaugurated over 40 years ago by the Father of the Nation, Sheikh Zayed and Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II. A landmark that has evolved with the bustling metropolis, Le Meridien is located strategically in an area referred to as the "Tourist Club", right next to Abu Dhabi Mall and at the nexus of the new bridges connecting the old & new Abu Dhabi. Abu Dhabi International Airport, as well as golf, shopping and key corporate, government and cultural hubs are just a short drive away from the resort.

STIMULATING GUESTROOMS

Find refuge in 248 comfortable and spacious guest rooms, featuring modern colors and paintings by local artists, plus Le Meridien signature beds. Then, awaken and start the day with a great breakfast, accompanied by refreshing eye- opener shots and expertly crafted Illy coffee. Discover a new perspective on the traditional beach holiday at Le Meridien Abu Dhabi, with plenty to explore and uncover within the resort. The gardens are home to a surprising variety of flowers, fish, turtles and birds. Active guests with a passion for the outdoors can indulge in a variety of water sports, squash, tennis and beach volleyball. Re-energize the mind and body at the Eden Spa, with over 50 treatments to choose from and an aqua medic pool.
